INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerk(s) in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the six boxes.
 Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.
 Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.
 Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
 Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

Plaintiff,

vs.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
C.O. LAMONT LUCAS, LAUREN COLLINS,
MR. BUNTING, TIMOTHY KAVELAK,
LT. LETITIA PARISH,
MICHAEL SCOTT LEWIS,

Defendants,

CIVIL ACTION NO.

14 1551

COMPLAINT

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lisa Nelson brings this Federal Torts Claims Act action against the United States of America, seeking compensation for injuries she suffered as a result of the intentional tort and negligence of employees of the Federal Detention Center Philadelphia ("Federal Detention Center") in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for the sexual abuse she experienced from Defendant Lamont Lucas. Ms. Nelson also brings a federal constitutional claim pursuant to Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents, 403 U.S. 388 (1971) for violations of her Eighth Amendment rights to be housed safely and free of sexual abuse, and the failure of Defendants to protect her from such abuse.

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has federal jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1343; 42 U.S.C. §§1983 and 1988; and the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

2. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to the Federal Torts Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. §1346 and 28 U.S.C. §2671, et seq.

3. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania under 28 U.S.C. § 1402(b) because the events giving rise to this action occurred in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, within the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff, Lisa Nelson, was an inmate at the Federal Detention Center Philadelphia in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at all times relevant to the events described in this complaint. She has since been released from custody and currently resides in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

5. Defendant United States of America is an appropriate defendant under the Federal Tort Claims Act.

6. Defendant Lamont Lucas was at all times relevant to this complaint an employee of the United States Bureau of Prisons as a corrections officer at the Federal Detention Center and is sued in his individual capacity.

7. Defendant Lauren Collins was at all times relevant to this complaint an employee of the United States Bureau of Prisons as a facilities assistant at the Federal Detention Center and is sued in her individual capacity.

8. Defendant Bunting was at all times relevant to this complaint an employee of the United States Bureau of Prisons and is sued in his individual capacity.

9. Defendant Timothy Kavelak was at all times relevant to this complaint was an employee of the United States Bureau of Prisons and is sued in his individual capacity.

10. Defendant Lt. Letitia Parish was at all times relevant to this complaint an employee of the United States Bureau of Prisons as a corrections officer at the Federal Detention Center and is sued in her individual capacity.

11. Defendant Michael Scott Lewis was at all times relevant to this complaint an employee of the United States Bureau of Prisons as a corrections officer at the Federal Detention Center and is sued in his individual capacity.

FACTS

12. From December 2011 to May 2012, Plaintiff Lisa Nelson was incarcerated at the Federal Detention Center Philadelphia ("Federal Detention Center").

13. The Federal Detention Center is an administrative security federal detention center, which houses individuals awaiting trial as well as some inmates serving their sentences.

14. Soon after Ms. Nelson's arrival to the Federal Detention Center, she was assigned to the "cadre" unit.

15. The "cadre" unit is a group of inmates designated by the Bureau of Prisons to perform various prison work projects.

16. Ms. Nelson was initially assigned to the general maintenance work unit.

17. Defendant Bunting was responsible for giving assignments to the inmate workers.

18. When Defendant Bunting asked Ms. Nelson what work she could do, Ms. Nelson responded that she could do clerical work.

19. Defendant Lucas overheard this conversation and asked to speak to Ms. Nelson.

20. Defendant Lucas supervised the tool room, which houses tools used by inmates to conduct their work duties.

21. Defendant Lucas informed Ms. Nelson that he would hire her as a clerk in the tool room.

22. Ms. Nelson was hired to be a full-time tool room clerk.

23. Ms. Nelson later learned that prior to her arrival there had not been a full-time clerk in the tool room.

24. All tools must be checked out and returned by the inmates at the end of a designated time period.

25. Typically, Ms. Nelson and Defendant Lucas would distribute the tools to the inmates in the morning before works crews would perform their maintenance jobs.

26. Defendant Lucas was a well-established and well-respected individual at the Federal Detention Center.

27. Soon after Ms. Nelson started her job in January 2012, while Defendant Lucas was showing her the tools in the aisle, he tried to kiss Ms. Nelson while they were in the tool room

28. Ms. Nelson pushed Defendant Lucas away.

29. Ms. Nelson was upset that Defendant Lucas tried to kiss her.

30. Ms. Nelson later informed Defendant Lucas that she felt uncomfortable about what happened.

31. Defendant Lucas was injured and missed approximately one month of work shortly after Ms. Nelson started, returning to work in February 2012.

32. Defendant Lucas was injured and missed one month of work around January 2012, returning to work in February 2012.

33. When Defendant Lucas returned to work, he began to “groom” Ms. Nelson to become more comfortable with him.

34. Defendant Lucas brought Ms. Nelson food from outside the institution that Ms. Nelson otherwise had no access to and was not permitted to have or eat.

35. Defendant Lucas brought Ms. Nelson other items from outside the institution that Ms. Nelson otherwise had no access to and was not permitted to have, such as lotion and toothbrushes.

36. Defendant Lucas engaged Ms. Nelson in conversations about their personal lives.

37. Defendant Lucas permitted Ms. Nelson to use the computer to browse the Internet for online shopping.

38. Defendant Lucas mailed letters out for Ms. Nelson directly to Ms. Nelson’s mother, Cecilia Bryant, so that the letter did not go through the regular prison mail system.

39. Defendant Lucas also brought Ms. Nelson around with him on rounds at the Federal Detention Center, including to the housing units which housed the male inmates.

40. Defendant Lucas also permitted Ms. Nelson to stay in the tool room unaccompanied while he was not in the tool room rather than directing her to sit on the bench in the hallway, which is where inmates typically waited while not working.

41. Defendant Lucas gave Ms. Nelson compliments, telling her that she was pretty and that he liked how she looked.

42. Eventually, Defendant Lucas attempted to kiss Ms. Nelson again, and she did not push him away.

43. Defendant Lucas began asking Ms. Nelson for a kiss as a morning greeting.

44. The kisses evolved from pecks to French kissing, and then developed into fondling and then ultimately to sex.

45. The tool room has an "A" room and a "B" room.

46. The "A" room is towards the back of the tool room and is not visible from the doorway.

47. Inmates were not permitted to go to the "A" room because it housed tools that posed a greater security risk.

48. Defendant Lucas would find assignments that took Ms. Nelson and him to the "A" room.

49. The first couple of times that Defendant Lucas initiated sex with Ms. Nelson, they were interrupted.

50. The time after that, Defendant Lucas and Ms. Nelson had oral sex instead.

51. Around Defendant Lucas's birthday in April 2012, Defendant Lucas wanted to have vaginal sex.

52. Defendant Lucas and Ms. Nelson subsequently had vaginal sex several times.

53. The sexual activity continued several times a week until May 2012.

54. During the sexual abuse, Ms. Nelson felt violated and incredibly conflicted, continually experiencing fear, anxiety, discomfort, and depression.

55. Ms. Nelson felt nasty, had trouble sleeping, and cried at night through the duration of the sexual abuse.

56. Pursuant to Bureau of Prisons Program Statement 3420.09, prison employees may not allow themselves to show partiality toward, or become emotionally, physically, sexually, or financially involved with inmates, and may not engage in sexual behavior with an inmate.

57. Pursuant to Bureau of Prisons Program Statement 3420.09, an employee may not engage in, or allow another person to engage in, sexual behavior with an inmate, and that there is never such thing as consensual sex between staff and inmates.

58. Pursuant to Bureau of Prisons Program Statement 5324.06, prison employees in the Bureau of Prisons have a duty to notify a designated prison official if an incident of sexual abuse is suspected.

59. Pursuant to Bureau of Prisons Program Statement 3420.09, prison employees must report to management any violation or attempted violation of unprofessional contacts with inmates.

60. Defendant Bunting had an office directly across from the tool room where Defendant Lucas worked and saw Ms. Nelson every day.

61. If Defendant Lucas was out sick, Defendant Bunting would ask Ms. Nelson questions about when Defendant Lucas would return, even though Ms. Nelson was an inmate and should not have access to that information.

62. Defendant Bunting would often poke his head into the tool room and ask questions like, "Are you behaving yourselves?" to both Ms. Nelson and Defendant Lucas.

63. Defendant Lauren Collins was a Facilities Assistant at the Federal Detention Center, and supervised the inmates on work details.

64. Most inmates must sit on a bench in the hallway while not working, but Ms. Collins frequently observed that Ms. Nelson was not sitting on the bench when she had no active duties.

65. Defendant Collins frequently observed Ms. Nelson sitting in the tool room office reading magazines and talking to Defendant Lucas or sitting in the tool room by herself.

66. Defendant Collins frequently heard loud music coming from the tool room.

67. Around Defendant Lucas's birthday, Ms. Nelson asked Defendant Collins a question about doing something for Defendant Lucas's birthday.

68. Defendant Collins asked Ms. Nelson how she knew Defendant Lucas's birthday since inmates are not permitted to know personal information about prison officials.

69. Defendant Collins felt uncomfortable when inmates and staff members were too comfortable, such as Ms. Nelson and Defendant Lucas.

70. Defendant Collins expressed her concerns to Defendant Lucas, but otherwise took no further action and did nothing to report Ms. Nelson and Defendant Lucas to other prison officials or staff.

71. Defendant Timothy Kavelak was a facilities manager at the Federal Detention Center.

72. Defendant Kavelak supervised Defendant Bunting, who directly oversaw the prison workshops, and assigned job positions for the inmates.

73. Defendant Kavelak observed Ms. Nelson spending time in the tool room not working.

74. Defendant Kavelak observed Ms. Nelson reading in the tool room, and heard loud music emerging from the tool room.

75. Defendant Kavelak expressed his concerns to Defendant Lucas and Defendant Collins.

76. Nevertheless, Defendant Kavelak took no further action and did nothing to report Ms. Nelson and Defendant Lucas to other prison officials or staff.

77. Defendant Lewis supervised Defendant Lucas.

78. When Defendant Lewis learned that Ms. Nelson was working in the tool room, he asked when Defendant Lucas had hired a clerk.

79. Defendant Lewis expressed concern that Ms. Nelson was in the tool room.

80. When Defendant Lieutenant Letitia Parish was conducting rounds in the subbasement area where the tool room was located, she observed Ms. Nelson in the tool room.

81. Defendant Parish was concerned that something was wrong with the situation with Ms. Nelson.

82. Defendant Parish expressed her concerns to some other prison staff, but otherwise took no further action and did nothing to report Ms. Nelson and Defendant Lucas.

83. In approximately May 2012, Ms. Nelson was informed of a date when she would be released.

84. Ms. Nelson was assigned to a halfway house.

85. Defendant Lucas informed Ms. Nelson that he wanted to continue seeing her.

86. Defendant Lucas informed Ms. Nelson that he wanted to give her a gift.

87. While Ms. Nelson was in the tool room, she selected a pair of earrings from the Internet.

88. Ms. Nelson did not think that Defendant Lucas would buy the earrings for her.

89. On May 16, 2012, the day before Ms. Nelson's release, Defendant Lucas informed her that he had to leave the institution because he had left his wallet at home.

90. Defendant Lucas did leave the Federal Detention Center, went home for his wallet, and proceeded to Tiffany's.

91. At Tiffany's, Defendant Lucas purchased a pair of earrings for $150.00 (plus tax).

92. Defendant Lucas brought the earrings into the Federal Detention Center.

93. Defendant Lucas gave the earrings to Ms. Nelson.

94. Ms. Nelson wore the earrings back to her cell.

95. Later, another inmate saw the earrings and told one of the corrections officers.

96. Corrections Officer Joseph Farrow asked Ms. Nelson about the earrings and confiscated them.

97. Ms. Nelson later reported to Corrections Officer Eric Harris that Defendant Lucas had sex with her.

98. An internal investigation was triggered.

99. During the internal investigation, which was led by James Gibbs, the investigators found print-outs from the Internet relating to online shopping, and letters and notes that Ms. Nelson had written to Defendant Lucas.

100. One letter was found taped in Defendant Lucas's locker to which only Defendant Lucas had the key.

101. One note was written on a paper in the shape of two hearts, where Ms. Nelson wrote the numbers: "143" and "154."

102. The number "143" is common slang in popular culture and the Internet for "I love you."

103. The number "143" corresponds to the number of letters in each word in the phrase "I love you," (i.e. "I" has one (1) letter, "love" has four (4) letters, and "you" has three (3) letters).

104. Defendant Lucas came up with the number "154" for "I wanna fuck."

105. These numbers were also written on Defendant Lucas's desk calendar.

106. Investigators learned that Ms. Nelson knew other personal information about Defendant Lucas that she was not supposed to know, such as his cell phone number, his nickname, the existence of a tattoo, the existence of a burn on Defendant Lucas's leg, and information about Defendant Lucas's family.

107. Investigators discovered that Defendant Lucas permitted Ms. Nelson to browse the Macy's website, select clothes and write down the item or web identification number, write to Ms. Nelson's mother with the identification number, so that Ms. Nelson's mother could ship the items to Ms. Nelson for Ms. Nelson to wear on her release.

108. On May 17, 2012, Ms. Nelson was transferred to the Metropolitan Correctional Facility in Brooklyn, New York.

109. To the best of Ms. Nelson's knowledge, Defendant Lucas was disciplined and fired for his actions.

110. Prison staff at the Federal Detention Center Philadelphia have a responsibility to protect all inmates in their custody and keep them safe from violence, including Ms. Nelson.

111. The Federal Detention Center staff and corrections officers were at all times relevant to this Complaint employed by the Bureau of Prisons.

112. At all times relevant to this Complaint, the Federal Detention Center staff and corrections officers were acting within the scope and course of their employment with the Bureau of Prisons.

113. As a direct and proximate result of the conduct of the Federal Detention Center staff and corrections officers, plaintiff suffered substantial damages, including pain and suffering, physical impairment, emotional distress, and harm.

114. Ms. Nelson suffers from permanent and ongoing psychological damage, requiring regular psychotherapy and counseling for over 9 months.

115. Ms. Nelson satisfied all available administrative remedies under the FTCA.

116. Defendants Lucas, Collins, Bunting, Kavelak, Lewis, and Parish are state actors.
